"Tartan" King Valley Pinot Grigio 2016 This is very much in the Italian style of Grigio, crisp clean and citrusy though with a pear like juiciness that offers that gives it an extra hit of flavour. A crisp, white that suits salads, seafood and sipping.	$22	$264
"Highlander" Margaret River Chardonnay 2012 A full bodied dry white from the famous Margaret River. Generous stonefruit characters are held in check by a streak of citrusy acidity and some subtle vanilla notes. Generously flavoured but with the restraint of a maritime growing region. A tremendous quaffer.	$22	$264
"1936" Coonawarra Cabernet Sauvignon 2013 The Coonawarra regionality comes to the fore distinct blackcurrant and cherry edged fruit given a savoury twist by a minty, gum leafy note. This character carries on to the palate and along with the ripe, fine tannins offers a framework for the fruit to sit on. Medium to full bodied on the palate with a finely woven balance of fruit, tannin, spice and oak.	$22	$264
"98 Vintage" Heathcote Shiraz 2015 Classic Australian Shiraz from the ancient Cambrian soils of Heathcote in Central Victoria. Rich and full bodied with flavours of ripe plums, blackcurrants, vanilla and cocoa leading to a long, vanilla scented and soft tanned finish.	$22	$264
Gordon Rugby Mixed Dozen Three bottles each of the wines above. Guaranteed to delight. Go the Highlanders!		$264
